

Tennis Classes

The city of Gatineau is offering tennis classes for people of all ages. The teachers of the tennis school have a lot of experience and all have been champions. They will help you get better and meet new challenges. You don't have to bring anything to the classes except tennis clothes and shoes. Those interested have from September 1 to 15 inclusive to sign up by phone, the city's website, email, or in person.

Desert Island for Sale

In the last pages of a newspaper, there is a desert island listed for sale. It is located in the middle of the ocean, a great distance away from any shore or continent. Maps don't show it because it is tiny. The island contains caves, flowers and other lovely plants. Birds and small animals can also be seen. This island is a good purchase for anyone wishing to escape the city from time to time. It is on sale with a sailboat included for $355 000 or on its own for $350 000.
